

Hansu 7mm Knee Sleeve 2.0 and Stoic Heavy Knee Sleeve statement

Dear Member Nations,

We would like to inform you of recent updates to the list of approved equipment as per our latest review. The following items have been removed from the approved list and should no longer be used in IPF-sanctioned competitions:

1. Stoic Heavy Knee Sleeve (IPF ID: 73) – This item has not yet been released to the market and will no longer be included in the approved list.
2. Hansu 7mm Knee Sleeve 2.0 (IPF ID: 330/1) – This version has been officially removed from the list of approved items. However, athletes will be permitted to continue using these sleeves for one year from the date of this notice. After that period, they will no longer be accepted in competitions.

Please ensure that all relevant athletes, coaches, and officials within your federations are informed of these changes to maintain compliance with IPF regulations.

Should you have any questions regarding these updates or need further assistance, feel free to reach out to us.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and your continued commitment to maintaining the standards of our sport.

Sincerley,

IPF Executive Committee
